

About the Teacher

(www.marçetic.com)

Miroslav Bata Marčetić was a leading performer, soloist and choreographer with the Serbian National Folk Ensemble “Kolo” in Belgrade, Serbia and in Montenegro for over 17 years. He has received numerous awards for his artistic work. As a well-known choreographer, he was chosen by the Folk Dance Association of Serbia to be a judge at folklore competitions in Serbia and Montenegro from 1980 to 1993. He has taught workshops on Serbian and Eastern European dance in the former Yugoslavia, Japan, Israel, Canada and the United States.

Since moving to Toronto, Canada (his current home), Bata has worked with both the international and the Serbian folk dance communities. In 2004, he established his own school of dance, the “Academy of Serbian Folk Dancing.” The school includes more than 300 dancer of all ages.

Bata has devoted his entire professional career to the preservation and perpetuation of folklore and dance. Please help us welcome Bata on his first visit to the Twin Cities and Tapestry Folkdance Center

About the Band

(www.balkanmusic.com/Sloboda)

Orkestar Sloboda is based in the Serbian community of Milwaukee, WI and has been entertaining dancers in the Midwest for over 20 years. They have a wide repertoire of Serbian and international songs that are both exciting and soulful. Help us welcome the band on their first visit to Tapestry Folkdance Center.
