Announcement from Tapestry

Tapestry regrets to announce that our Executive Director, Christy Spillman George, will be leaving us as of August 31st. We want to thank her for her time and leadership here at Tapestry and wish her the best of luck on her new endeavors.

“I want to express my sincerest gratitude to the board, the program leaders, volunteers, committee members, and Tapestry’s amazing community of dancers. My time here at Tapestry serving as Executive Director was an honor and a privilege. I wish this organization the very best in its future and hope to come express my joy of dance with you at many upcoming events.”

All the best,
Christy Spillman George

The Tapestry office will be lead by Interim Executive Director, Dana Hoeschen, starting in September. Please send any questions or inquiries to staff@tapestry.org.

You've got one more chance to experience the family-friendly concert and dance series "9 Nights of Music" at the Minnesota History Center. On Tuesday, Aug 29, Boiled in Lead will be the featured band, with dance instructor Natlie O'Shea. It's free! Dance instruction starts at 6:30 and the band performs live from 7 to 8:30 pm.

At Tapestry, we express joy through dance and welcome friends, neighbors and newcomers. We create a diverse and successful community by encouraging everyone to dance, and adapting to different levels of experience. Treating each other with kindness and generosity ensures everyone has a good time. This makes Tapestry a community, not just a dance space.
